July Special Offering

Today's special offering will support Somsay Inthisorn. In 1987 Somsay fled from his home in Laos to Thailand where he lived in a refugee camp for 7 years. After a year in the camp, he became a Christian. By the second year the “refugee church” pastor immigrated to Canada and informed Somsay, who had become heavily involved in the church, that he was to be the new pastor. He was now pastor to a church of about 1000 people. Somsay recently graduated from Calvin Seminary where he took a class on church planting, taught by Kevin Adams. Earlier this month, Somsay returned to Laos to help start churches.

Dear Granite Springs,

Diana and I wanted to say Thank You for the welcome gift we received two weeks ago. We've already chowed the jelly beans and have treated ourselves to Jamba Juice. You're hospitality has made us feel at home - and as a result you're going to make it very difficult to leave. We look forward to more adventures in the coming weeks.

Sincerely,
Diana & Matthew Burns

Lia Harper, Director of Children's & Women's Ministries, is currently on vacation. We wish her and her family a fun and relaxing time.
